PORTLAND, SATURDAY, AUGUST 7, 1886

THE WORK OF CONGRESS.

Congress has had a long session, from Decamber 7, 1885, to August 5, 1886. A long session is justified by good work wrought and had work paralyzed. The congress that has just adjourned does not seem to have dotte anything in particolate. her to justify its long seesalon. It seems to have broaded over everything and accomplished little or nothing. The only bill of permanent national consequence passed is the presidential succession bill. The oleomargarine act is in pretence a revenue bill; lo fact, it is stampin business interest under the Federal he one outsiness interest under the Federal heel to benefit another, a shameful outrage on the spirit of free institutions, which do not contemplate the erection of legislation in defence of monopolies of any sort. The fiver and harbor bill became a law through the good sense of the president, no though dent, no thanks to the action of congress filled it with items that afforded a domagogue president superficial justification for a sensational veto, but Cleveland, like a man of integrity and good sense, refused to bruise the nation in order to kill the inevitable, irrepressble cockroach of corruption that runs over the appropriation bills. The Marrison surplus resotion fortunately failed to become a law; it was an insidious effort to commit the government to payment of our bonds, interest and principal, in silver. That would have been its practical effect, as Rowitt warned the house. practical effect, as Rewitt warned the house. The corporation attorneys bill failed to become a law through the chicknery of Senator Edmunds, who after pledging his word to Beck to return the bill in eight days, did not return it untit three weeks, and returned it in the form of a substitute that was a burlesque of a very serious matter. The sena e is full of corporation senators, like Teller, Spooner, Edmunds, Teller and Mitchell, who hanage to hill every bill that seeks to raclaim from corporations a decent respect for the rights of the people. The Northern Pacific land for fetture legislation has Northern Pacific land for felture legislation has all fallen fiat, through the cunning efforts of the corporation attorneys in the senate. When they cannot deny the equity of a measure they refer it to Edmunds's indictory committee, who freeze all the vitality ont of it and impedently return a burjeeque of the original measure to the senate. In March last a bill "forfeiting a Bart of certain look in the senate. part of certain lands granted to the state of lows to aid in the construction of railroads" was discussed in the senzie. The lands in ques-tion had been granted to the Sioux City & St. Paul, and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul com-parties in the days when such grants were made parries in the days when such grants were made through the agency of states. Senator Spooner, of Wisconsis, took a prominent part in the debate, offering and supporting an amendment which was regarded by some persons as embedying legislation favorable to the Sioux City & St. Paul company. Mr. Spoener had been and was then counsel for that company, and two days after the massage of the bill filled a bird's feathers were sticking out of the crown of his hat on every side.

The United States senate has become the American house of herds, and we shall get rid of it before fifty years it it does not stop stalling all legislation in the futerest of the rights of the people. Beet's bill provided "for the punishment, by fine and imprisonment in the penitheniary, of any senator or representative who that become the attorney or employe of a railroad company that has obtained a charter, or grants of land, or pecualary aid from the merested in receive ingressions asserted in received asserted in the man who stoutly asserted in the man who is received asserted in the man who is received in the man who is received two days after the passage of the bill filed :

hrief in the United States supreme court as at-torney for the company in a case relating to the same question. So the Oregon senators manage to get up legislation in both houses of

This bill was a righteous tuform; it proposed to make every senator to stud on the platform of Senator Platf, of Connectical, who, when the promoters of a railway enterprise in his state expressed a desire to retain him, declined the fee on the ground that so long as he was a senator of the United States the duties of that office would require his attention. This was bis repl., although the scante had not no in session fer four mentles and would not reassemble for four months to come.

But Hippie-Mitchell and Edmunds, of Varmout, think the bill of Back an insult that deserves only to be made a matter of burlesone. For Mitchell this action is natural, but for Edmonds, who has postured as a man of Roman integrity in the senate, it was a shameful down-fall to the level of those congressmen "after this to the level of those congression anxiously whose health corrupt Corporations anxiously whose health corrupt to swindle and to steal." The federal laws already forbid sen-ators to take bribes, to take compensation for work in the departments; they are forbidden to hold an interest in government contracts: and yet when Reck asks the senate the question, "Shall the senator, who site as a judge upon very important questions arising between the great land grant railroads and the people, he allowed to have in his packet a retatuer from the railroad company?" Hipple-Mitchell moves a burlesque amendment, and Edmunds report It to the senate as a serious answer to Beck's bill. Mr. Edmonde's answer satisfies the peo-ple that the United States senate is the tool of the great subsidized corporations, and that opinion is not changed by the speeches of Hip-ple-Mitchell, made under the sheltering wing of Senator Teller, by whose direction the pat-ents for the swindling Backbone railroad's lapsed grant were resned through the interior department by night work in the last hours of his term of these

Nor do the people care a button for the arguments of Evaris and other corporation senators against the bill. They see that on its marita it promptly passed the senate; that on the promise Edmonds to treat it fairly it was reco and referred to his committee; that Edmands put it in his ice box until it was frozen to death, and then with a sardonic smile presented the senate with the congested corpse of Beck's

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN. par les prefer Mr. Beck'e bill to Mr. Edmonds Hipple-Mitchell's burlesons of it. The record of the United States senate will damp if.
The bouse has over and over again passed land forfeiture bills; the senate sitter falls to concur, or Othelia Edward to senate sitter falls to concur, or Othello Edmunds smothers in committee the Deedemons of reform, on the plea that while be Peedemona of reform, on the plea that while allows her she has grossly insulted him. The senate killed, by non-action, the house bill freiting the tapeled Texas Pacific grant; the senate, from the force of evil habit, every sessing the senate, from the force of evil habit, and the public comain and establishing the rights of the p against the dishbuest greed of corporations. We notice that Edmunds did not urge his telegraph bill this session; probably his new tond and for the rights of corporations against the de has served to cool his ardor, and we notice that the bankrupt bill got no earlous notice from either house of congress. Edmunds was so occupied in preventing the confirmation of Hob. B. S. Smalley, nominated by the president to succeed Edmunds's suspended friend, Gen. Wells, as collector of customs at Barington, that the great Vernotes that that the great Vermonter had no leisure f states manship. The record of congress is shahp in the senate, where republicans rule, but no more disreputable than in the house, where there is a democratic majority. The temocracy has not cut down expenses tried to bedevit the currency, atthough asked by the president to suspend the sliver colonge; it has passed an extravagant river and harbor bill; it has increased the pension bill; it has not lightened taxation or diminished the annual acrpins that is the standing excess for extrava-gent appropriations and the cause of corrupt legislation; it has taken to steps to place our tast sea coast in a state of defense; it has re-used to reform or revise the tariff, and altogether its record in congress that aris, and alto-gether its record in congress is that of a party of negations. The only thing that relieves the democratic party in congress from absolute con-tempt is the conduct of the president, who, with the exception of the postofiles department, whose efficiency has been greatly impaired by the folly or incapacity of Gen. Vilas, has given

LOGAN AND EDMUNDS.

The last session of congress has greatly injured the influence of Logan and Edmunds with the country. Edmunds has deservedly lost induence by his needless clumsy controversy with the president about the appointments; by his im-practicable reform bill which would make it impossible for a president to get rid of a worth-less officeholder without an appeal to the courts. jess officeholder without an appeal to the courts. Mr. Edmunds doer not seem to comprehend that "there is no more reason to invoke the courts to remove a postmaster or an Indian agent than to remove a messenger of the senate." Senator Edmunds made a worse blunder, which has justly cost him the confidence of the people, when he smothered Beck's bill ayantst genoming lawyers received a the ayantst genoming lawyers received a the Hipple-Mitchell's brain as his own and reports it to the setate. Logan's error is serious. Logan was a brave and able soldier; he is an Logan was a prace and able source; no is an bonest man of ability enough to deserve and command popularity, but he planted himself upon an untenable, absurdly untenable position when he refused to grant the request of the when he refused to grant the request of the Ohlo republicans for an investigation of the election of Senator Payne, pleading that there was no evidence that Senator Payne had any corrupt part or lot in the assumed frand. No legislature body could purify itself if it limited its right to investigate. body could purify itself if it itimited its right to investigate alleged corruption to the moral responsibility of the impeached incumbent for the frant that gave him his seat. Senator Loganite doubtless sincere in his views, but his cincerty impeaches his intellect, and has leet him the confidence of thousands of men, who know that under his ulea for Payne no leglest him the confidence of thousands of men, who know that under his plea for Payne no legislative body bould purify itself. Everpbody knows that a seat ulay be bought in a legislative body by corrupt action of a political combination, without the gailty knowledge or participation of the man for whom the seat is purchased, but the right of a senate to purify itself cannot, in commorfeense, stop with the responsibility of the unpeached senator for his corrupt election. Senator Loren hed which to expect election., Senator Logan had a right to expect that Senator Payor, had be been haif a man, would faire insisted that the U.S. senate should investigate his election. Logan is bonest, but he has made a great mistake; he has forfeited the confidence of thousands of intelligent re-publicans in the coundriess and strength of bis intellect, for under his piece for Payne the U.S. senste could be filled with members, whose scale were purchased, without any remedy un-less you could prove the sensior possessed of guilty knowledge of how bis seat was produced.

PORTLAND AND THE MINES.

It is quite clear that if Portland is to have any It is quite clear that if Portland is to have any benefit from the rich mines which lie in her range she must fight for their business. The Court d'Alene and Colville districts are indiway between Montana and Portland, accessible from effiner side and in a situation to accept the putronnge of the competitor offering the better terms. The Wood river district in Idaho, and the great mining region of Eastern Oregon are similarly situated, and by no means under the necessity of dealing with this city. Just congress, whose discussion and decision will be some to murder both bills, and then, with their tengues stuck in their checks, rise to state solemnly "that they are not connected in any way with the Northern Pacific or any other company interested in Federal legislation." They are as impundent as the man who straight asserted. are similarly situated, and by no means under the necessity of dealing with this city. Just now we can control the business of the Southern district whether the miners like it or not; but the completion of the Oregon & California road will make that district as near to San Prancisco as to Portland. All of the districts are practically fudependent of Portland, and we can control their trade only by going for it. To control the business we must own the mines or a share of them, and operate them in the Portland interest. There will never again be so good a time as now to get possession of mining proj this as now to get presented of mining properties, and we are clad to see a movement in this direction. Already Portland capitalists bold consisterable interests in Southern and Eastern Oregon, indicating the Pine creek camp, and two or three mines in the Coar C'Alendistrict bave lately been manued by Portland men. Enterprise in this way ought to continu till the Portland interest is the dominating in-the the Portland interest is the dominating in-terest in every camp.

It is not Portland alone, by any means, that will be benefitted by the development of miding in the Northwest, and the concentration of the in the Northwest, and the concentration of the business of the mines at Portland. As a conter of supply for the camps Portland will merely be an agent in marketing the productions of the country. Mining development on a great scale, intustry to Portland, means not only the production of a greater or less quantity of gold and silver, but the creation of a home market for the general productions of the country. If Portland falls to control and supply the mines, then the whole advances of the presistent control. then the whole advantage of their existence an development will be lost to the state. The pro-ducers of the state have the right to demand of Portland to gain this business for them and for highest

For the first time there will be no "October election? in Ohlo this year. Last year the voters railfied a constitutional amendment changing the time for the annual state election from the other to November, and hereafter the country will be free from the demoralizing performance that the country will be free from the demoralizing performance that the country will be free from the demoralizing performance. ormances so often enacted in the nast in to secure the "moral effect" of a party victory for use in other states which voted later. Indiann made the same change earlier than Oble.

The number of raiway postal clerks in service June 30, 1895, was 4568, an increase during the year of 176. During the year 205 have resigned who were in office prior to March 4, 1885, and 232 who wint in subsequently resigned, 228 were removed for partianship, 275 for cause of discipline, 194 probationers were dropped and 17 clerksidied, making 1827 vacanties and appointments during the year.

It is often necessary to send telegraphic dispatches a very long and round-about course.
Owing to a break in the wires between Unaba and Cheyenne, one night last week, the regular dispatches for the Denrer papers had to be sent via the Northern Pacific wires to Portland and mands, Evaris, Mitchell and Teller, has this sension made a record that will give the democrats the control of the sensie by March, 1897.

As Mr. Austin speaks in positive terms, it may be that he has not received the official letter of in struction sent to him (dotby with the receiver) from Commissioner Sparks, or it is just possible that having received the letter he has failed to read carefully the following paragraph which corned part of it. The paragraph is a follows:

Referring to that portion of your letter in refer the received by the company, which were fortered to the Oregon for the Child States of January 31, 1885, this files (the general land office) the Sparks of the Child States and you as necentive officer, are equited, in the absence of special instructions to center has a set instance upon all aplications to center has a set instance upon all aplications of center has a set instance upon all aplications of center and set instance upon all aplications of the Child States, and you as not will all the course paragred by your action in the main approved. Hereafter, when application shall be under to enter any of these lands, which have been sciented by the company, you will transmit all the pupers to this office, without deducts action thereon, until further advised; but if not selected you will it your ludgment to discuss the child states.

The efficial letter of instruction from which the above is extracted was written and sent out by the and commis-laner on July 7 and must now be us the hands of the register and receiver at Vancou

the hands of the register and receiver at Vancouver.

Upon inquiry we find that all the lands in odd sections in Washington territory within the overlapping limits of the forfeited Oregon Central grant and that of the Northern Pacific commany, have been selected by the latter. The OS-800-81AN was therefore correct in its statement that the local other (or officers) at Vancouver were directed by the commissioner not to accept the fluggs or entries on the lands in question. That is, we take it, the plain English of the commissioner's order. There may, helved, he a technical distanction between "accept" and "receive;" but taken is connection with the tome of the commissioner's order, they came to pretty much the same Chlog order, they came to pretty much the same Chlog order, they came to pretty much the same it was the purpose of the editorial of Tue whow that Commissioner Sparks had gone back on the original order, and this is abundantly proved by the extract quoted above. Mr. Austin is ne ther intelligent or candid in his letter.

Sparks Again Beversed by Secretary Lamar—The Reasons Why

[Special to St. Loais Globe-Democrat.]
WASHINGHON D. C., July 27—Lommissioner
Sparks, of the General Land Office, has received day by the Secretary in some particulars sets all others in the shade. It has been the habit of blarks for some time past to sand out special agents to investigate certain matters and then on it e strength of their reports, to immediately cancel entries or make other decisions. The Secretary in the letter directed to Mr. Sparks to stay points out the entient njustice of such action as this and shows that the testimony of an agent is necessarily exparts in its character. The case which has called out this letter is a very migrating to me. In Humboldt county (alifornia, a large tract of timber land was taken up by Beach Evans Marks and others in due time this land was transferred for a consideration and when Mr. Sparks became commissioner it was in the brightal entries. Sparks sent out some agents from the land of fice, and the, banted up the original entries. Sparks sent out some agents from the land of fice, and the, banted up the original entries. Sparks sent out some agents from the land of fice, and the, banted up the original entries of this Sparks canceled the original entries. It was not long till the department heard from Hearty C. Puttam, of Wisconsin who represents the present owners. He held that the reason Beach Evans and Marks dearned to have the entries canceled was that they might enter them a second time and agein sell out. Mr. Sparks wouldn't listen to blin but the secretary did and has ordered a hearting of the case before the receiver at Humboldt. From the receiver either party can take an appeal to the on mussioner, and from the commissioner to the earnetary. day by the Secretary in some particulars sets all others in the shade. It is not always gumbing nor the fracts to be rich that leads to moral wreck. It is much moraction the moral recklessness that is a part of the splitt of this age. Contentment, abuddance a religious tention to one a daily day are a longer locked upon as necessary virtues. On the contror these things are rather spurned moneon patchis with modern aspirations. Every none adult is to get into some other man splice, to use in life, and to be, or appear the, something other than he as. The rich man must make more than he has carned we must all be moving about in a state of constant unrest and discontent, amid which the old notions of migion, virtue, honor, contenied industry and domestic simplicity have no chance to exist. When every man is reaching out for something that does not belong to him—whether in position, in wages, in corporate privileges or publication, in wages, in corporate privileges or publications of the content way and transfer their employers money to their own pockets.
